

CMER Agenda

November 20, 2001

Natural Resources Building 175A 9am-3pm

Process for setting and approving CMER agenda, highlight decisions needed (Doug Martin & Tim Quinn)

Stakeholder Group update: Policy involvement in establishing management implications of SAG projects (Geoff McNaughton)

CMER Workplan outline and assignments (Geoff McNaughton) Approval required

CMER workshop: first year results and upcoming projects (Tim Quinn)

Bull trout management implications (Tim Quinn)

CMER budget update and SAG spending: any leftover $? (Tim Quinn and Geoff McNaughton)

Skill-building Retreat (Mary Raines, Geoff McNaughton & Heather Rowton)

Status of Adaptive Management Oversight Committee (Tim Quinn)

RMZ Resampling proposal(s) to be submitted to FF Policy (Dawn Pucci)

Possible use of $100k project development funds for CMER website, final edits, and publishing (Geoff McNaughton & Allen Pleus) Approval required

Review of SAG requests for SRC (Doug Martin)

CMER member communications to public; how to know when you are or are not representing CMER (Doug Martin)

News bites:

New USF&WS bull trout funds available ($228,000)

RMZ Resampling proposals and TFW #118 have been submitted to SRC

CMER state funds unlikely to suffer from state budget problems